

Title or "Commonly Known as"	Person's Name Usual- ly Associated	Location of Main Activity	Operating Authority	Budget (Dollars)	Duration
DIRECTLY RELATED
Drug Project	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	B/6 B/3	1947 to Pres.
A project in the isolation and synthesis of pure drugs for use in effecting psychological entry and control of the individual.
Detection of Deception	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	B/6 B/3	2 yrs fr Oct 9
The determination of the physiological changes in a man which indicate deception is being practiced. Investigation of the measurement of these changes thru mechanical and electrical devices.
Motion Sickness	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	B/6 B/3	10 May 51 to present
A study of the effect of drugs on the vestibular function of the ear and the development of side effects which indicate the possibility of psychological entry and control.
Polygraph Comparison	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	Not yet decided	B/3
A comparative evaluation of the various deception detecting devices on the market. There will be particular emphasis on determining the accuracy of their measurement of physiological changes supposed to indicate deception.
Drugs	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	B/6 B/3
The development and application of drugs which will aid in the establishment of psychological control.
Unconventional Warfare	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	B/3
Drugs and Electricity	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	B/6-B/3
Research work on the effects of lysergic acid on animals. Use of electric shock and the encephalograph in interrogation. Particular emphasis on the detection of prior use of electric shock and the 'guaranteed amnesia' resulting from electric shock.
Hypnosis	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	Wash. D C CIA
Investigation of the possibilities of hypnotic and post-hypnotic control.					